

SPEAKING ENDORSEMENTS

“Dr. Fuhrman delivered his message on the powerful effects of nutritional excellence with a wonderful combination of passion and humor. Our audience was spell-bound and motivated to take charge their own health. We were tremendously grateful for Dr. Fuhrman’s effort.”

Douglas D. Mercer

President, Nutrition for Wellness Foundation

“Dr. Fuhrman initiated our staff wellness program with a dynamic presentation that really got our staff interested and motivated to take action. After his presentation our employees were able to reduce their average total cholesterol by 18 points in just seven weeks, while at the same time losing weight! I would strongly recommend Dr. Fuhrman, without reservation, to any company that wishes to start a successful and comprehensive wellness program.”

Matthew L. Israel, Ph.D.

Executive Director, Judge Rotenberg Educational Center - Canton, MA

“The health care monster that is ravaging corporate America cannot be tamed by tweaking the current system of "disease care". Dr. Fuhrman's highly effective approach of promoting health has the potential of preventing most diseases through a program of nutritional excellence. After 15 years of dramatic success within his own private practice, and in medical research studies, he is ready to share his secrets with enlightened business leaders who wish to be among the first of many corporations to really get serious about promoting health within their organizations.”

James M. Hicks

President, The Ansley Consulting Group
Former EVP of Polo Ralph Lauren Corporation

“Corporate America must listen to Dr Fuhrman. Finally we have a physician who has put together the most effective dietary and nutritional program based upon empirical data and clinical evidence. His lectures have inspired and motivated employees all over the United States to follow his advice - thereby lowering their weight, blood pressure, cholesterol, and of course their health care dollars.”

Lee Launer

Fellow Society of Actuaries

“Dr. Fuhrman speaks with ease about complicated health issues. His clear, entertaining, insightful and motivating talks about disease prevention and reversal puts him at the top of any medical speakers list.”

Gerald Deutsch

President, National Health Association

“The moment you began to speak, it was clear that we made the right decision... Your presentation was both entertaining and interesting with the right mix of hard data, examples, and opinions. Moreover, it was well organized and easy to follow.”

Laura Banko

President, Princeton Day School Parents Association
