Matera

Discover the town that lies upon a small canyon carved by the rain and wind

If you try to compare Matera to other places in the world you would never find a similar city. Also known as the Subterranean City, Matera is famous for its historical center called “Sassi”, considered World Heritage Site by UNESCO since 1993, along with the Park of the Rupestrian Churches which can also be visited during this experience.

The town can be explored under the guidance of a local friend who will drive the guests in the hidden spots of Matera, offering an insider look of this incredible place. Elected European Capital of Culture in 2019, Matera will overwhelm you, catapulting you into a world of history and culture that drags you back in time.

Lecce, the city of Baroque

Discover one of the most important example of Baroque in Italy

Lecce has many traces of the art of Romans, Medieval and Renaissance period, but the exuberance, beauty and eccentricity of the Baroque stands out. Lecce is considered the “Florence of the South” thanks to its incredible artistic and cultural heritage, capable off capturing the eyes and the hearth of everyone.

Walking through its street you will immerse yourself in the warm and enveloping tones of the Lecce stone, admire its ancient buildings and surround yourself with the unique warmth of its people, even enjoying some traditional food such as “Pasticciotto”, a local pastry with cream or “Rustico”, a savory aperitif prepared with puff pastry, bechamel, mozzarella and tomato

Monopoli

Discover the city of a hundred districts

Monopoli is a fishing village that has become a charming must-see destination over the decades. Along the centuries the village has been a source of inspiration for poets and artists.

One of the ways to visit Monopoli is to start from the harbour, suggestive at any time of the day, a gateway to the town for those arriving from the sea, with a very peculiar urban scenery, the primitive spirit of a city born from the water. In the old natural harbour you will have the chance to see the “vozz ”(gozzo), the typical local wooden boat, with its traditional colors, light blue and red. Monopoli old town is a succession of intertwined narrow alleys that will lead you to unexpected small squares full of bars and restaurants where you can enjoy freshly-caught fish, pizzas or a gelato. An explosive mix of colors, art, food and nature.

Ostuni, the «white city»

Discover one of the gem of Itria Valley

The historical centre of Ostuni is one of the most beautiful in Italy and is known throughout the world for its original architecture. Ostuni is well known as the “white city”, because white is the color that dazzles the eyes when you look at its walls. Ostuni is teeming with shops and small boutique where you can buy authentic souvenirs or just be inspired and overwhelmed by curiosity.

Our local friend will guide you through the tunnels of narrow streets and paths that cross magnificent churches and small shops, arches and alleys, to get lost in the beauty of this country that watches over the Itria valley.
